Cuban Rebels' Yacht Seized, Group Chased

Band Landed After Trip From Mexico, Scattered In Hills

By LARRY ALLEN

HAVANA (AP)—Army forces today pursued a yachtload of Cuban rebels from Mexico who landed on Cuba's southwest coast in an attempt to open a new front for insurgent leader Fidel Castro.

Military authorities said the band, unofficially estimated at 30 in number, had landed during the weekend at La Coloma Beach in lower Pinar del Rio province and scattered in the hills.

The army claimed it had seized the yacht—El Coraje (Courage)—and quantities of arms and munitions the invaders cached in a farm house.

If the new group keeps out of army hands, it will be in a position to open up a third front in Castro's guerrilla war against President Fulgencio Batista. The eastern province of Oriente, where Castro landed from Mexico with 61 men in December 1956, is the focal point of the revolt. A second front is operating in central Cuba's La Villas province.

The main rebel force in Oriente struck at several points around Guantanamo, site of the U.S. Navy's base in Cuba. Army headquarters said the insurgents suffered heavy losses.

The rebels shot up Caimanera, a sugar mill town north of the base. There were no casualties reported on that foray, but the army said four rebels were slain in an attack on Jamaica, a town six miles north of Guantanamo. The insurgents burned the mill warehouse, destroying 1,000 bags of sugar.

Jersey Vote To Be Light

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—New Jersey's voters today select a Republican and a Democratic candidate for U.S. senator.

Although there are 2,800,000 eligible voters in the state, less than a fourth of these were expected to cast ballots.

The primary campaign has been comparatively quiet. There has been little personal criticism among the three Republican and three Democratic candidates, and political gatherings have generally attracted small crowds.

New Drug For Killing Pain Gets Tested, Chemists Told

By RENNIE TAYLOR
AP Science Reporter

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A drug 100 times stronger than morphine in pain-killing ability has been produced in the laboratory and is being tested on humans and animals.

It offers chemists an opening to develop a new line of better as well as stronger pain killers, says Bill Elpern, drug researcher at Cutter Laboratories, Berkeley, Calif. Elpern described the product today before the American Chemical Society.

Basically the drug is an alkaloid called piperidine, but it has

Crippled Youth Killed

Teenage Boys Face Verdict In Slaying

NEW YORK (AP)—An all-male jury resumes deliberations today in the case of seven teen-age boys accused of slaying Michael Farmer, 15-year-old polio-crippled son of a city fireman.

Judge Irwin D. Davidson ordered the jurors locked up in a hotel overnight when they requested a recess shortly after midnight. They had had the case six hours and spent three of them in actual deliberations.

The threat of the electric chair was removed from five of the defendants. Completing a daylong charge, Davidson told the jury that only two of the defendants, who range in age from 13 to 19, could be convicted of first-degree murder. He left the way open for the jury to convict the two on a lesser charge, if any.

The most of the other five could be guilty of, he directed, was first-degree manslaughter.

A death sentence would be mandatory if the jury found Louis (Little Jesse) Alvarez, 17, and Charles (Big Man) Horton, 18, guilty of first-degree murder.

There was testimony during the 95-day trial—perhaps the longest and costliest murder trial in the city's history—that Alvarez, a Puerto Rican and president of the Egyptian Dragons, a youth gang, plunged a hunting knife into the Farmer youth's back.

And there was testimony that Horton, a Negro, slashed at Farmer with a machete. The 6-foot-2 Horton, who came here three years ago from Decatur, Ala., was the only defendant yesterday without a relative in the courtroom.

The five other defendants have been pictured in testimony as striking, stomping and using belts and a dog leash on Farmer, whose crippled legs prevented him from fleeing his fatal beating last July 30 in an upper Manhattan park.

Farmer and a companion, Roger McShane, 15, were ambushed as they headed for a swim in the park. Farmer was white, as is McShane. The state contended that neither belonged to a gang. There was testimony that the Egyptian Dragons "war party" mistook Farmer and McShane for members of the Jesters gang.

Sixteen Persons Die In Airliner's Plunge

MADRID (INS)—Sixteen persons died today when a Spanish airliner crashed into the Mediterranean Sea in a flight from Bilbao to Barcelona.

The plane, carrying 14 passengers and a crew of two, radiated the Barcelona airport it was coming in for a landing just before it crashed six miles from the coast.

to go through several chemical changes. Elpern made several kinds for testing. The strongest of these was not only 100 times the strength of morphine but 785 times as potent as meperidine or demerol, one of the most widely used synthetic pain killers, Elpern said. However, it was also about 10 times as poisonous as demerol and slightly more poisonous than morphine. But since its effectiveness as a pain killer increases much faster than its toxicity, it could become the foundation of a new group of agents against pain, the researchers said.

Free World Formula In Parleys Due

Kremlin Will Get West Proposals On Summit Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles today accused the Soviet Union of having debauched and prostituted international diplomacy and peace-making processes for propaganda purposes. Soviet propaganda use of letters exchanged with President Eisenhower, Dulles said, is destroying one of the frail reeds upon which peace rests.

Says Peace Endangered He said the Kremlin is therefore endangering peace.

Dulles told a news conference U.S., British and French ambassadors might open presummit talks in Moscow Thursday—the date suggested by Russia. But he said he was not sure because a note replying to Russia's statement of terms for negotiation has not been completed.

In advance of his news conference, it was indicated the Western reply would go to Moscow today or tomorrow.

The formula put together by the United States, Britain and France was approved yesterday by the 12 other Atlantic Pact nations at Paris.

Briefly stated, it was understood to go along with the Soviet proposal that the Big Four ambassadors start talking things over in Moscow Thursday. But it was described as dead set against the conditions laid down by the Soviet Union.

Conditions Outlined These conditions are that the ambassadors and the Big Four foreign ministers, if they do gather together, must discuss only technical details—not the world-dividing issues themselves. That, Moscow says, should be left entirely to the heads of government at a summit meeting. Further, the Soviets want a firm date in advance for the summit.

The Allies are reported agreeable to starting ambassadorial talks in Moscow Thursday. That date fits in with their suggestion that late April was a good time to get things rolling.

But they are reported telling Moscow in their new note that a delay of a week or 10 days might help matters.

U. S. Envoy Ready If the Soviet Union insists on a Thursday start, U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson was described as ready and willing to get going. If delay is acceptable, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Prison Riot Probe Begun

CONCORD, Mass. (AP)—Five guards were injured and the prison furniture shop was reduced to ruin when inmates at the Concord Reformatory staged a bloody mutiny last night.

Eighteen convicts were herded into solitary confinement cells and questioned in relays throughout the night after what was described as one of the worst inmate riots in the state's penal history.

Convicts set fire to the huge furniture shop, tried to wreck other buildings and slugged correction officers and instructors with pipes, pieces of lumber and work tools.

Vanguard Firing Seen Next Week

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A rocket designed to carry a basketball-sized satellite into space will be fired next week, if the usual pattern of preparations is followed at the Air Force missile test center here.

A Vanguard rocket was given a static test Saturday to check the performance of its components. Usually a shot follows a static test by about 10 days.

The 20½-inch satellite which is next to be launched is more than three times the size of that borne aloft by the first Vanguard.

Tass Reports Sputnik Fall Over Islands

MOSCOW (AP)—More than five months and masses of scientific data after they launched Sputnik II with its dog passenger, Soviet scientists have officially proclaimed its end.

A Tass statement last night said, "The second Soviet artificial earth satellite, which was launched into its orbit Nov. 3, 1957, entered the dense layers of the atmosphere this morning, broke up and terminated its existence."

Tass said available evidence indicated that, as air friction burned the satellite up like a meteor, parts "were dispersed along a route running in a southeasterly direction over the small Antilles Islands, Brazil and the Atlantic Ocean."

A flaming object was reported over the West Indies about 8:55 p.m. Sunday. Tass did not give a specific time of disintegration.

The end of Sputnik II leaves only American satellites circling the earth. Three have been launched successfully and one is in two separate parts, making four U.S. moons now in orbit. Sputnik I burned up in January after three months in orbit.

The dog in Sputnik II died one week after the satellite went up. The moon completed about 2,370 trips around the earth, covering a distance of 62,136,000 miles. Tass reported.

British Develop First Airliner Like Helicopter

LONDON (AP)—A British company claimed today that the world's first vertical takeoff airliner—it goes straight up, then straight ahead—soon will be hauling 40 or more passengers from the heart of one city to the center of another.

The Fairey Aviation Co. announced its Fairey Rotodyne makes the 220-mile flight from central London to the heart of Paris in 100 minutes instead of the present 4½ hours required.

The long bus trips to and from the airports taking so much time, Fairey built the 40-passenger, 150-mile-an-hour craft for British European Airways.

Model School Urged For D. C.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate subcommittee has urged Congress to appropriate the money necessary to establish model school facilities in Washington for handling mentally disturbed and incorrigible children.

The Senate subcommittee on juvenile delinquency said yesterday Washington "is one of the major cities woefully lacking in ancillary facilities" for handling such children.

Along with these he recommended an increase in Social Security benefits, broadened and expanded unemployment compensation benefits, lowering interest on government borrowings, aid for small business, and federal loans for local public works and distressed communities.

In reply to GOP hints that Truman was called to provide the committee with political propaganda, Spence declared there was "no frameup."

Spence disclosed that Truman had written saying he was interested in the hearings, and that he was invited. "Ex-presidents are entitled to come if they want to," Spence said.

As a self-styled "retired Missouri farmer," Truman proposed, "an antirecession prescription committee" of an immediate chief of

Union Leader Wins Appeal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Court of Appeals by a 2-1 vote today reversed the contempt of Congress conviction of Frank Brewster, Western boss of the Teamsters union.

The majority took the view that the Senate investigations subcommittee before which Brewster refused to answer questions and produce records, was investigating in a field beyond its authority.

Public Works Bill To Face Senate Fight

WASHINGTON (AP)—A billion-dollar public works bill, sidetracked by a Republican-led move before the 10-day Easter recess, comes up for renewed Senate debate today.

However, signs of mounting opposition brought forecasts that several days of debate are likely before the Senate reaches the voting stage.

There were indications the bill, described by backers as an anti-recession measure, faces strong GOP opposition on grounds it conflicts with President Eisenhower's program for fighting the business slump.

The bill calls for a billion-dollar loan fund to help states, cities and other local agencies undertake various types of public works—such as schools, public buildings, streets, bridges and water and sewage systems.

Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.), the author, tried strenuously to have the bill considered before the Easter recess, but a postponement was voted 41-39.

U. S. Engineer Seeks Record For Plane Held By Russian

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—An attempt to crack a Soviet-held aviation record was to be made today—starting on a dirt road in a field behind a dam.

Timers from the international timing group will be on hand when the red-and-yellow monoplane takes off for what may be a new endurance record.

The craft is a radio-controlled model plane with a 6-foot wing-span. Builder Ken Willard, 40, a mechanical engineer, will control it from the ground.

At stake is the Soviet record of 3 hours and 6 minutes. The plane is the same one which Willard guided across the 28 miles, between Long Beach, Calif., and Santa Catalina Island last July.

"It would have set the official world's distance record on that flight," said Russell W. Nichols, executive director of the Academy of Model Aeronautics, Washington, D.C., "except no official takes off for what may be a new endurance record."

Nichols, a delegate to the convention in Los Angeles this week of the Federation Aeronautique Internationale, "one of the timers who will check to see that Willard's plane satisfies all the requirements to set the record."

"It must land within 500 feet of its takeoff point," Nichols explained.

GOP Group Gets Views At Session

Blanket Authority On Spending Never Sought, Ike Asserts

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today told GOP congressional leaders he has no intention of seeking blanket authority for the secretary of defense to control all military spending.

Senate Republican Leader Knowland of California reported the President's position on that controversial matter after the leaders' regular weekly meeting with Eisenhower.

Knowland called it a misconception that Eisenhower, in a special message to Congress April 3, advocated giving the secretary of defense full authority over military money.

Aide Created Upstart That message outlined the President's plan for reorganization of the military establishment. When it was sent to the Capitol a presidential aide, Bryce Harlow, told a news conference the impact of the plan would be to give the secretary of defense complete control of military funds.

That interpretation set off a roar at the Capitol from legislators opposed to giving up any part of Congress' power of the purse.

The issue is due for an airing at a House Armed Services Committee hearing on the plan, now set to start a week from today. The session was put off from today at the request of Secretary of Defense McElroy.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) announced the delay yesterday, saying McElroy wants to be the first witness but will be in Paris this week for a meeting of North Atlantic pact defense ministers.

Democrats Assail Ike For Opposing Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Senate Democrats said today the Eisenhower administration appears to be tightening its lines against tax cuts and further spending despite continuing unemployment.

Senators Humphrey (D-Minn.) and Monroney (D-Okla.) criticized in separate interviews what they called increased administration resistance against efforts of Congress to pass legislation aimed at creating jobs.

On the other hand, Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said more "crackpot schemes" for federal spending had been submitted to this session of Congress than any other he could remember.

Bridges, who heads the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said in a radio broadcast he is opposed to all this "pent-up, frantic effort to spend ourselves into prosperity," adding that it can't be done.

East States To Get Rain

By The Associated Press Rain fell in the Far Northeast today but pleasant spring weather was indicated in other parts of the country.

It looked like clear skies and warming temperatures for the opening of the major league baseball season in eight cities.

The major wet belt yesterday was in the lower and mid Mississippi valleys and eastward into the southeast and south Atlantic states. The rains were expected to spread through the south and mid Atlantic coasts this afternoon and northward into the upper Ohio Valley.

New Lana Turner Film Has Release Pushed Up

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lana Turner's new movie, its release pushed up to ride with the headlines, shows the blonde actress in near-suicidal grief over the death of an illicit lover.

The movie, "Another Time, Another Place," was originally scheduled for September release, but Paramount Pictures now plans to release it May 1.

"The picture is a gamble both for us and Lana," said a Paramount executive who didn't want his name used. "It could well decide what effect Lana's current troubles will have on her career."

The movie was made by Lana's own company, Lanturn Productions, for Paramount release. Most Hollywood sources believe how her name happened to be that the sensational headlines among his effects.

In Woodstock, Ill., Stompanato's derelict friend Johnny Stompanato will boost her box office value, Lana's daughter Cheryl, as saying that Carmine would file a $399,999 damage suit against the Stompanato April 4 to protect her actress. But he also said no decision had been made about filing.

The picture was previewed last night for a few members of the press. It was made in England. Stompanato was there part of the time during the filming. Lana last Friday told a coroner's inquest that the one-time henchman of ex-gambler Mickey Cohen choked her and held a razor blade to her face during an argument of a London hotel room.

The stabbing of Stompanato was ruled justifiable homicide by a coroner's jury. Cheryl still faces a juvenile court hearing.

Panama Asks Rapist Freed

PANAMA (AP)—Charging discrimination, Panama's government today asked the United States to free a Panamanian Negro who has served 12 years of a 50-year sentence for raping a white woman.

The Panamanian note pointedly called attention to the sentencing of an American soldier last week by the U.S. court in the Canal Zone to 10 years for raping a Panamanian girl.

The Panamanian Negro, Lester Greaves, had pleaded guilty to committing rape in the Canal Zone, which is under U.S. jurisdiction. He was sentenced in April 1946 at the age of 29.

The differing views were expressed as the Federal Reserve Board reported the seventh successive monthly drop in its index of industrial production. The figure for March, down two points to 128, was the lowest since the 1954 recession. A three-point drop was recorded for February.

The index measures the volume of output of the nation's factories and mines, with 100 indicating the 1947-49 average. At 128 per cent of that figure, the March index compared with 145 a year ago and a peak of 147 in December 1956. The 1954 low was 123 in August of that year.

Along with decreased production, the board reported March drops in employment, incomes and retail sales and an increase in unemployment.

Among other things, the report said construction activity remained at a high level while private housing starts, adjusted for seasonal variations, remained about the same as February for an annual rate of less than 900,000 units.

Bridges said he believes the tide is against a tax cut such as former President Truman proposed in an appearance before the House Banking Committee.

However, Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) renewed his appeal for a tax reduction. Douglas said the administration is "playing Russian roulette with the security of the American people" by delaying action in this field.

Humphrey said that apparently President Eisenhower is "continuing to underestimate the extent of the business recession just as the administration underestimated the effect of the Russian Sputniks."

Monroney noted that administration witnesses had opposed flatly a $12-million-dollar federal aid bill for airport improvements which he is sponsoring and said he believes the White House is taking the wrong tack.

"What the country needs is confidence," he said. "We ought to pass these antirecession bills and have them ready to use if conditions worsen. If employment picks up, the President can order some of the money impounded. He has done it in the past."

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

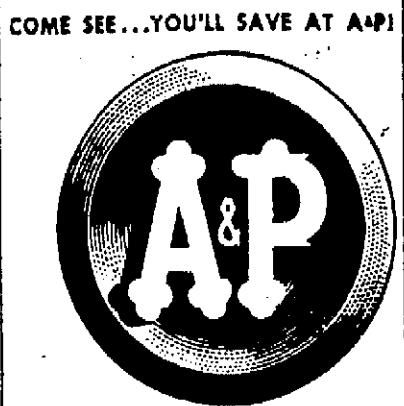

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet, development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The head-aches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful topically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any material for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.

McKeldin To Study Bid As Runningmate

Would Listen To GOP Talks About Choice As Vice President

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Gov. Theodore McKeldin of Maryland says he'll listen if the Republican Party talks to him about accepting the nomination for vice president in 1960.

McKeldin also says he believes his nomination might be an acceptable balance should Vice President Nixon, a Californian, get the GOP presidential nomination.

McKeldin made the comments here last night when he addressed a local Republican workshop audience. He added that he would be out of a job in 1959 because he is barred by law from seeking a third term. He is the only Republican to be governor of Maryland twice in a row.

Sees GOP Gains

In his workshop talk, McKeldin predicted the voters in the next general election would give President Eisenhower a substantial increase in the number of Republican congressmen and senators.

McKeldin said he believes the people will vote for "peace, strength and stability."

He also referred to the recession, saying the current situation is one of those downward trends in the economy which occurs from time to time and which always will occur at intervals.

Spending Boosts

He said local, state and federal governments are boosting their spending schedules by about four billion dollars to curb the recession. He added that the growing population must spend about six billion dollars in the way of increase for essentials.

"Despite those natural counterforces to recession," McKeldin said, "the panic parasites and termites of terror are feasting on the foundation of our economy."

"The panaceas that they preach are as wild and irrational as their hunger for return to power," he told the audience.

Road Mistakes

THE CATALOGUE of mistakes a driver can make on the open road is long. Some are so rash only the wildest ever make them. Some are so casual that few realize the trouble they can cause. One of the most dangerous in the casual category is swinging onto a main highway from a side road or a roadside stop at an ill-fated moment. In Baytown, Tex., that happened the other day with terrible result. The driver of a Cadillac whipped onto a main artery smack in front of a big gasoline truck. Cut-off, the truck driver jammed on his brakes, causing his tank-trailer to jackknife and skid sideways across the road.

BEHIND THE TRUCK drove a woman with her four children. She, too, hit the brake pedal hard. But she couldn't stop, and plowed broadside into the truck. The gasoline exploded, the truck swayed and toppled onto her car. The woman, her four children and the truck driver died in raging flames. Probably unaware of what happened, the driver of the Cadillac drove off down the road. On him—or her—rests the responsibility for this tragedy. It occurred because that driver, like countless others, either was too thoughtless and impatient to observe the rules or never learned how to enter a main highway. The rules are simple, rooted in common sense. You never spin out directly in front of an oncoming car. You wait for a space big enough for you to slip into without forcing the next car on the road to reduce his speed sharply.

ADMITTEDLY, THESE judgments can sometimes call for delicate calculations of speed and distance. But such measurements are the very heart of good driving. If you can't make them, any highway is a death trap for you and all the others you might involve. To be responsible for a highway death and know it is very bad. To be responsible and not know it is almost worse. None of us should ever drive onto a main road as if other drivers either could or should stop for us. To assume that is to invite disaster like that which struck near Baytown.

The Economic Spot

EVIDENCE is piling up that the Eisenhower administration still hopes to lick this recession not by broad, dramatic strokes like tax cuts and huge public works but by a series of specific remedies in various fields of economy. So the attack is made on tight credit, new defense money is funneled into lagging industries, a shot in the arm is prepared for housing and highways on the theory their impact would be widespread. The list is long, and often not only unspectacular but unsung. With the clamor for "big action" getting louder, the risk to the President is self-apparent. If his cluster of small remedies should work and business should turn upward, he may be hailed for his courage in resisting the clamor. If it doesn't work, it could be late for the big steps. And it could be severely damaging to the Republicans' already none too bright prospects in the general elections of November, 1958.

Billboards

FOR A LONG TIME Congress has considered whether the developing 41,000-mile federal interstate highway network should be marked by advertising billboards. House-Senate conferees on a big highway bill soon will settle the matter. The House version provided no restriction. The Senate bill would give the government control over billboards along 65 per cent of the highway web, offering a cash bonus to states which would comply with federal regulations to be set up. The unhappy part of this is that the Senate measure is itself already a compromise with the principle that the federal system be kept billboard-free. Accommodation with the House presumably can only further water down the "ban." If there is a conflict of rights in this issue between motorists who don't want their scenery spoiled nor to be a captive audience, and people who want to rent their land for ads, some middle ground is indicated. But the Senate bill leaves the antibillboard forces weaker than they should be for sensible compromise. And the fact that three of five Senate conferees voted against the bill hardly seems designed to promote a balanced solution.

Texas Democrats Face New Problem

WASHINGTON — Suddenly Texas has come up with a portent of trouble in store for the Democrats.

The conservative and wealthy William Blakley of Dallas has announced that he would run for the Democratic nomination for the United States Senate. At stake is the seat he held briefly by appointment in 1957 from the then Gov. Allan Shivers.

In a special election last April, Texas loyalists at long last succeeded in electing their favorite, Ralph Yarborough, to that seat. They had tried three times and failed to make Yarborough governor.

Blakley had been assuring his own friends that he would positively not take on Yarborough. A report promptly became current that he had learned Yarborough was switching to his old love, the race for governor.

THOSE WHO credit the report declare Blakley could not beat Yarborough for the Senate but would be a powerful contender against any other candidate the loyalists could put into the Democratic primary.

Blakley came here as an Eisenhower Democrat but is now said to be disillusioned with the President and Washington trends. It is in the possible success of a right-wing Southerner from big, rich Texas that trouble lies for Democrats generally and another Texas, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson, in particular.

For several reasons Democrats have been able to believe and hope that they could minimize their regional differences as the next Presidential campaign approaches. Nearly all the strong-willed leaders who fostered anti-Truman sentiment have faded from the scene. Senator Yarborough's victory encouraged all the Southerners of more liberal views.

A BLAKLEY victory will re-emphasize the party's differences and rally the right wing to new efforts in 1960. Whether he himself possesses capacity for political leadership of the kind once held by such men as former Senator James F. Byrnes could not be determined in the few months he was here but his practical abilities are much admired by Texans.

Senator Johnson is the leading Congressional advocate of the kind of moderation that will enable all Democrats to huddle under the same tent, civil rights included, in 1960. He has held the Senate firmly to a middle course — too firmly to suit the Northern and Western Democrats.

Johnson's personal problem is not to get too far from the right for Texas. His liberal colleague, Yarborough, is a boon to him in that respect. Beside Yarborough, Johnson seems to Texas more conservative even though he must sometimes yield to North and West sentiments in the party.

THE EFFECT of Blakley in the Senate would be the exact opposite. He would make Johnson seem more liberal at home and at the same time would represent pressure on the majority leader to take more conservative positions nationally.

The apprehension of liberal Democrats that the Johnson policies will hurt them in a Presidential contest against Vice-President Nixon would be quickly sharpened by any move Johnson might make in the direction of the Blakley beliefs.

THE SENIOR Senator from Texas does not admit for a minute that he is a candidate for President. Reporters interpret his actions as meaning that he is. Knowing him, they would not expect him to be resigned to his fate but to take action.

Some of the answers from Texas will be available soon, since the final filing date for the party primaries is May 5 next.

Ike's Theory Wrong, Statistics Reveal

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — President Eisenhower's press conference statement that it's more normal than abnormal for the cost of living to go up while business levels down isn't borne out by the economists' statistics and graphs.

The situation today is that gross national product of goods and services, or GNP, dropped from an annual rate of 440 billion dollars in the third quarter of 1957 to 432 billion in the fourth quarter. First quarter 1958 figures are not yet available. Informed guesses are that they will show an annual rate of 423 billion dollars.

FEDERAL reserve board's index of industrial production has dropped from its high of 145, June to August 1957, to 130 for February 1958.

In this period, the consumers' price index, or cost of living, has risen steadily. It was 120 last June and July, 100 being the 1947-49 average. It was 122 in February.

It takes a book to explain what has happened in full. But Even Clague, the Commissioner of Labor Statistics who supervises the consumers' price index, explains it by breaking the cost of living into its three main elements.

These are foods, commodities other than foods like clothing and automobiles, finally consumers' services like utilities, health, entertainment and rent.

Consumer services have been rising steadily for 20 years. They will probably keep on rising, whether general business levels go up or down.

Recent rises in the costs of fruits and vegetables are blamed on bad weather in Florida, Texas and California. Crops have been ruined. Supplies have gone down, prices up.

Meat prices reached bottom in 1955 when there was heavy marketing of beef and hogs. Prices went so low that farmers cut their herds. This reduced supply. Prices started rising through the normal short-supply winter season.

SO FOOD prices have had little to do with general business levels. On commodities other than foods there are seasonal fluctuations just as on foods.

Clothing and other soft goods prices usually rise in the fall and winter for Christmas trade. Prices on hard goods like automobiles also go up in the fall when new models are introduced.

This time, all these increases happened to coincide with the general business decline. This is abnormal.

The United States has been through one major depression and five lesser recessions in the last 30 years.

In the big bust of 1930-33, GNP, translated into 1956 price levels, dropped from 186 to 129 billion dollars.

In these same years, index of industrial production dropped from 59 in 1929 to 31 in 1932. The 1947-49 average is taken as 100 for this index number.

In this depression, the cost of living index dropped from 73 in 1929 to 55 in 1933, the 1947-49 average being 100. This was considered normal economic behavior.

The country went into another, but smaller tail-spin from 1937 to 1938. GNP dropped from 190 to 181 billion dollars. The production index dropped from 61 to 48.

Cost of living index dropped from 61 in 1937 to 60 in 1938, to 54 in 1939 and 1940. This was considered normal.

In World War II years, of course, everything went up.

But in the immediate postwar slump, GNP dropped from 322 billion dollars in 1944 to 289 billion in 1947. Industrial production dropped from 137 in 1943 to 90 in

Glancing Sideways

NEW YORK—There is nothing quite as forlorn and foolish-looking as a man standing flat-footed in the path of progress. I don't know how things stack up out your way, but here in New York we are undergoing a snowstorm of squirt-cans and a man is lucky if he doesn't paint a shelf with whipped cream or clean his teeth with gold spray. Nor is there anything just like strawberry shortcake au shaving cream.

This headlong fad for putting things in cans with compressed air backing up the contents is giving households fits. There is a toothpaste so equipped now, paints come in dozens of colors, whipped cream can be squirted, so can shaving cream; insecticides, deodorants of rooms, smoke-clearers for the dens of cigarette smokers and Heaven knows how many other feats can be accomplished this easy but perilous way.

I HAD NOTHING else to do at 4 o'clock the other morning and, giddy with finishing "The Underground City," all 735 pages of it, I decided to assemble every squirt-can in the house in one place and see what resulted. The score: 22 cans, each one with a different function.

Many of them looked much alike, what's more, and unless you read the labels carefully you could give your children gilded cornflakes in the morning or whipped cream could engulf the roaches around the sink.

They haven't yet put nose-drops in a squirt-can nor have they put instant coffee in one, but don't think they won't. Any nation capable of developing a toothpaste with crimson stripes in it is beyond barriers. The frontiers are wide open and far away.

WHEN IT COMES to painting anything, including a wall or a ceiling or an old pair of grandma's high-button shoes, I am a brush man. I like to sand clean the surface, apply a smooth, careful undercoat, sand that, and then the top coat. The result is satin and something that won't flake off or fall off.

We did a room over recently, and the paint store tried to tell me that a roller was the only way and if I was against rollers, why didn't I spray the difficult areas. There is no such thing as a difficult area when painting a room. The whole thing is difficult if you do it correctly and patiently.

I have watched friends dip cylinders of lamb's wool into a trough of paint and try to roll the dye on a ceiling, and next to tending a giraffe with a sore throat I can't think of anything more trying. Also, you still have to paint in the corners with a brush. But I said I would try a spray on the ceiling.

Now I know what space looks like: it is a vast expanse of blue dotted with deeper concentrations, where the spray collected too thickly, which are island universes or spiraled galaxies. I did the whole thing over with a five-inch brush and it is as smooth as the left wall of the Taj Mahal. Smoother.

LAST Christmas we found an old bird cage, a long discarded rubber stamp holder from an ancient office and some sprays of artificial flowers.

My bride asked how it would be if she put wreaths of the flowers, intertwined, around each of the three tiers of the stamp holder, stuck the result in the bird cage and hung the whole thing in the bay window on a golden chain. I said it would be fine and we could have Salvador Dali to dinner and he would love it.

So she did, and when she got through she bought a large can of gold spray and gave it a gleaming going-over. Then she bought a small stuffed bird somewhere, sprayed it until it was like beaten gold, and had it wired to the outside of the cage looking as though it were trying to get in. Effective. Except for a small mishap. She gave the bird a neat, sloshy coat of shaving cream by mistake the first time.

Actor Larry Hugo's charming wife, Carolyn, who is from Richmond, the daughter of a Congressman and a lady of taste, thought the final effect was overwhelming, but Carolyn should have seen the bird awash in suds and sopping. It took us four days just to dry it out.

I HAVE NOT yet tried to shave with insecticide nor have we sprayed Chinese Vermilion enamel on hot oatmeal, but do not be surprised in your house if this can happen, or does. These squirt-cans come equipped to do almost anything and if, in a sleepy morning state, you grab the wrong one the result can be chaos.

Also, never underestimate the ingenuity of children. They will, one of these days, spray their teeth with a dentifrice and claim they brushed them.

Fifty Years Of Hilarity

WASHINGTON — This is the 50th anniversary of the National Press Club and I am pleased to report that the sparsely dressed lady who gazes serenely from a golden frame upon the main lounge doesn't look a day older.

We got her from behind the bar of a defunct saloon in the long ago, and the things she's seen since then have filled a number of books. I liked, myself, the time Harry Truman started banging on our upright piano (it needed tuning) and began hitting clinkers when suddenly in front of him appeared two neatly-filled nylon stockings. They belonged to Miss Lauren Bacall, who'd seated herself on top.

SOME TIME later our demon bookkeeper, who believes in fairness to all, posted this same Truman, Harry, 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, for being delinquent in his dues. He paid up promptly. Like all other Presidents, except the current one, he enjoyed our club.

President Eisenhower never has joined. I think he made a mistake. The Press Club's one of the few places in America where he could have lunch (hamburgers, with potatoes, onion and catsup, 50 cents) without 1946. This reflected cancellation of war orders.

IN THIS period, however, cost of living index — which had started to rise in 1941 — went from 62 that year to 102 in 1948. This reflected not only the removal of wartime price controls. It was also the inflation caused by shortages and pent-up consumer demand for goods and services not available in war times. This was abnormal.

MY MAN assured him that it was. This is some slight exaggeration, probably, because we don't throw confetti at lunch, but we do enjoy our meals. One of our favorite pastimes is to invite bigwigs from around the world to eat with us. They range from Winston Churchill to our own Secretary of Defense to the Prime Minister of Pakistan. We feed 'em meagerly and then pepper 'em with questions.

These sessions frequently result in big, black headlines, and for a reporter, this is the next thing to Heaven. The story comes to him for a change, instead of vice versa, and all he has to do is listen and try not to make too much clatter eating his apple pie with cheese on top.

SAD THING about our golden anniversary celebration is the fact that we don't have enough space in our rooms to hold our stag dinner. We've got 4,000 members, some widely scattered around the land, and we expect 1,000 diners at Washington's biggest ballroom. This shindig costs $15 each, cash on the barrel head. No credit.

That's another thing that makes our club unique: No check signing. Pay for what you get when you get it, and that explains, probably, why our institution is more solvent than most.

Reporter's Notebook

NEW YORK—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

That boxer John L. Sullivan was a champion at the table as well as the ring. He could consume 15 pounds of meat at a sitting.

That, speaking of meat, your own lifetime quota of animal protein makes quite a herd: 33 hogs, 10 lambs, eight steers and four calves.

That Burl Ives, who collects Irish sayings, like this one: "A man needs a woman to take care of him so that she can make him strong enough for her lean on."

That science has subdued the "black death." In 1957 only 514 cases were recorded of the bubonic plague that once scourged the world.

That by 1983 it is estimated there will be 100,000 Americans alive who are aged 100 years or older.

That you probably knew a house fly has six legs, but did you know a spider has eight?

That actor Errol Flynn paid this unusual tribute to his wife, Patricia Wymore, and survived: "She's not my type, but I love her." Could you say that at home, and get away with it?

That all U. S. mailmen don't deliver on foot. There are 135 horseback routes, 20 boat routes, and 32 employing airplanes.

That the nation's first subway wasn't built in New York. Boston won the honor in 1897.

That the most sociable of all mammals is the prairie dog. And all this time we thought it was that gay old dog down the block from us.

That—here's a sidelight on modern morality—a 42nd Street novelty store here has displays of religious objects and switch blade knives side by side in the window.

THAT PERHAPS the world's most prevalent childhood diseases is a form of protein malnutrition. It is estimated half to two-thirds of all children suffer from it.

That no physician has ever been elected president of the United States. But William Henry Harrison, the 9th president, did study medicine in his youth.

That if you are 40 years old now the chances are 13 out of 48 that you will live to be 65. But only one in 13 that you'll be financially independent.

Washington Scene

WASHINGTON—At our latest panel show, President Eisenhower exhorted us to help recede the recession by buying—Anything! In response to a reminder that Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson had urged us to practice thrift, Mr. Eisenhower explained what he meant in this clear, incisive fashion:

"Look here, once America just buys the things it wants, our people, our manufacturers, will be busy making those things. I personally think our people are being just a little bit disenchanted by a few items that have been chucked down their throats, and they are getting tired of them; and I think it would be a very good thing when the manufacturers wake up—and I am not going to name names—and begin to give the things we want instead of the things they think we want. Now that is what I think."

PUTTING ASIDE any argument that all the rubbish we buy doesn't go down our throats—even if chucked—I am afraid I will not be able to make myself follow his splendid advice.

I fear the habit of loading up on trash has become too ingrained. Moreover I have a dimming feeling that this is not peculiar to me; that there are others similarly afflicted. We have become so addicted to junk-buying that it seems well-nigh impossible for the President to turn us into sensible buyers.

I am not an economist—although forced by circumstances to be economical—but I have a vague feeling that the recession may not be due so much to injudicious buying as to the change-over from manned flight to missiles.

A manned flying object, at least the ones that take off from this planet, put down somewhere, and the people get out and buy things, such as gasoline, whodunits, and pin-cushions embroidered with the name of the airport.

What does an unmanned missile stop to buy?

The problem may be intensified when we get into outer space. On the way to Mars, few passengers are going to hop off at our sole satellite and load up on moonstones for the wife, whose birthday they have belatedly remembered.

THESE ARE THE things I keep disenchanting myself about. I might even become morose—except for an abiding faith that President Eisenhower will lead us out of our troubles. At our news conference, he appeared every inch a leader.

He declared there was no danger of Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy becoming a "Czar" because the Commander-in-Chief wouldn't let him. He said he didn't care who was against his plan to give the Defense Secretary greater powers, adding:

"It just happens I have got a little bit more experience in military organization and the directing of unified forces than anyone else in the active list."

This was heartening because it was the first time any of us could remember that he had said he didn't care who was against one of his plans. He has made almost a cult of assuring us that opponents were entitled to their opinion.

As far as we could recall, it was also the first time he didn't bother to justify himself, philosophically or otherwise.

Maybe there enchantment ahead, under an enchanted leader.

Frank R. Kent,
Columnist, Dies

BALTIMORE — Frank Richardson Kent, one of President Eisenhower's favorite political columnists, died yesterday at the age of 80.

Kent wrote the column, "The Great Game of Politics," which appeared in the Baltimore Sun and more than 100 other American newspapers.

Press Secretary James Hagerly said President Eisenhower expressed his sadness over the death of Kent.

"He was one of the President's favorite columnists," said Hagerly. "He read him frequently and had a great deal of respect for his writing."

During his half century of political reporting, Kent was known and read by several Presidents. He also became the friend of Presidents Wilson and Hoover.

Kent was known for his knack of getting news sources to talk and was liked for his wit and charm.

His death was attributed to complications arising from a kidney ailment.

Timeless design...and who should know it better?

He's an Architect ... able instinctively to sense the difference between passing fancy and enduring form. And when the Imperial '58 came along, all his instinct forced him to a conclusion.

"There's not a misplaced line in my new Imperial. Every shape and detail has a beautiful logic.

"You can get technical about Torsion-Air suspension if you like, or why Imperial power steering is different ... or how the new Auto-Pilot warns you of over-speeds and holds you at a steady turnpike pace without a touch on the gas pedal ...

County Body Sets Tax Rate

Only Slight Increase In '58 Budget

Nearly Two Million Goes To Schools; Figure Set At $2.05

The Allegany County tax rate for the fiscal year starting July 1 will be $2.05 per $100 of assessable property.

The total for the coming fiscal year is $4,526,334.87 as compared to $4,522,649.41 in the current budget. Coupled with the state tax rate of .1425 cents per $100 of assessable property the total tax rate on property will be $2.1925 per $100 of assessable property.

Largest item is $1,904,500 for public schools as compared to $1,890,044 in the budget ending June 30. Next biggest item is $439,384.20 for roads and bridges. The current budget of the Roads Department is $374,628. Actually, the highway account is lower in the next fiscal year than the current one when one takes into consideration that $61,061.98 in supplemental matching funds for the 1956 Mt. Savage School Road bonds and 1957 Mexico Farms Road projects was paid from the current levy.

Salaries Included

The overall highway budget, using the matching fund item payment, will be $462,092.97 as compared to $467,452.64. The county roads maintenance and repair program for the next fiscal year will cost $391,504.20 as compared to $312,420 currently. Some of these increases are due to workmen in the department receiving added salary because of a step up by one year in the classification system.

Last year when a 10 per cent salary increase was given county employees a lump sum of $73,000 was listed in the budget for this. In the budget adopted today the salary increase in the various classifications is listed for each of the various departments.

For the first time the commissioners have used the entire taxable basis — which is $158,000,000 in setting the levy at $2.05 per $100 of assessable property. In former years they did not figure on the full taxable basis in order to provide a "cushion" for the following year.

Other Income Listed

The $2.05 tax rate on $158,000,000 basis will bring in an estimated $3,239,000. Other income includes the tax from bank stock of $29,780; corporation franchise tax of $2,150; amount due from the state for the maintenance of the insane, estimated amount of interest on taxes of $9,000, estimated $23,000 from liquor license fees, estimated $60,000 from the state for tax on distilled spirits, $422,873.17 from the state for lateral roads gasoline taxes, $200,000 as county's allocation from state income taxes, $1,250 receipts from county jail, $6,250 from magistrates, $9,500 from Trial Magistrates' Court, $9,000 from patients in state hospitals, $32,000 from paid patients in the County Infirmary, $13,000 from paid patients in Sylvan Retreat, $6,500 from inmates of County Home, $7,000 from automobile taxes, $1,850 from auto license fees, $44,000 from state horse racing fees, $800 from state for forest fire protection, $600 license fee from Fairgo, $7,500 from pin-ball machine and music box licenses, $15,500 from recreation tax, $14,000 from traders licenses, $3,000 from admission taxes, $3,240 from rents and concessions, $5,000 from dog licenses. There is a net unexpended surplus of $384,541.70 in the current levy which will bring the income to $4,526,334.87.

Cuts were made in a number of budget requests. The county commissioners' office is down $1,100. Circuit Court judges down $900. Jury and witness fund down $1,604. Election costs down $200. Civil Service Board down $120. There is a $13,500 item in the current budget for interest on 1957 school construction loans which is not in the new budget, county building expenses are down $15,696.60 and public safety costs are down $3,497.

The following table shows how the county tax rate and expenditures have increased since 1941:

Year	Rate	Expenditures
1941	1.43	$1,382,462.50
1942	1.38	1,808,410.93
1943	1.62	1,806,501.23
1944	1.77	1,811,306.38

1946	1.77	1,945,563.85

Income Tax Returns Due By Midnight

Both state and federal income tax reports are due by midnight tonight.

Edward V. Welsh, manager of the state comptroller's office on Market Street, expressed the belief at noon today that "things are pretty well over." He said yesterday was a particularly heavy day for those filing state returns but that business was slackening off by midday today.

The state comptroller's office closes at 5 p. m.

Federal Internal Revenue officials in the Post Office building reported business brisk both today and yesterday. That office will also close at 5 p. m.

Teachers were reminded that midnight is the deadline for filing education benefit claims for 1954 under the federal law.

Full Taxable Basis Used In Setting Rate

James Orr, president of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners, said the board decided to hold to the same tax rate of $2.05 for the coming fiscal year by using the entire taxable basis.

"We cut every budget request wherever possible, only granting those which were absolutely needed for the proper function of the department involved."

"We will notify every department head that they must keep within their budget during the fiscal year starting July 1. We hope there will be some surplus in the budget which can be used next year when setting the levy," Orr declared.

Commissioner William A. Wilson, who was participating in his first tax levy duty, said one of the big reasons for the board deciding to keep the present tax rate was the current recession and unemployment.

"With many persons either laid off or unemployed we felt that we had to keep the tax rate within bounds so as not to place an added burden on the home owner," Wilson added.

Commissioner Charles N. Wilkin, who was not present at today's meeting as he is ill at his home, James G. Stevenson, clerk to the board, will take the levy list and resolution for its adoption to Wilkin's home for him to sign this afternoon.

Bedford Man Death Victim

An elderly Bedford area man died last night in Bedford County Memorial Hospital as a result of a two-car accident April 7. The victim was Charles D. Hershberger, 81, of RD 1, Bedford.

Pennsylvania State Police at the Bedford station said the man sustained only minor injuries in the mishap, but apparently suffered a stroke. He was admitted to the hospital in a state of shock.

Trooper John Haywood, who investigated, said the accident occurred on U.S. Route 220, five miles north of Bedford.

The car which Hershberger was driving collided with another car driven by John W. Sherbine, 21, of Wilmore. Sherbine is reported in "good" condition at the Bedford hospital where he was admitted following the crash.

Trooper Haywood said the victim suffered only a minor laceration of his elbow and back injuries in the crash. Approximately $750 property damage was caused in the collision.

Two Prisoners Break Jail In Hagerstown

HAGERSTOWN — State and city police were searching today for two young prisoners who escaped from the city jail yesterday.

The two, Ronald Lee Billman, 18, and Max Cecil Kershner, 22, both of Hagerstown, were discovered missing at a count of the inmates last night.

Billman had 10 more days to serve of a 60-day sentence for being drunk and disorderly, and Kershner was awaiting trial on a burglary charge.

Officers theorized the pair got out by way of the kitchen, climbed over the roofs of two small buildings and scaled an eight-foot wall.

Lakes Over Crest

Lake Gordon is four inches above the crest of the spillway and Lake Koon two inches above, a report by C. L. Brotemarkle, assistant superintendent of Evitts Creek Water Company, to the Mayor and Council showed Monday. Consumption for the week ending yesterday was 80,710,000 gallons compared to 82,830,000 the same period a year ago.

Canal Street Plan Backed By S.E. Group

Businessmen To Offer Proposal And Reasons To Mayor, Council

The South Cumberland Businessmen's Association has retained James S. Getty, attorney, to present its views to the Mayor and City Council on the opening of Canal Street and the widening and improving of the Virginia Avenue subway beneath the B&O Railroad tracks.

Getty said the association will present nine points in its program for the opening of Canal Street. They are:

Canal Street will provide a second southbound artery for traffic.

Such additional southbound artery is essential to handle the volume of traffic which is predicted for both the immediate and more distant future.

The new Baltimore Street bridge will provide sufficient width for a second southbound lane turning into Canal Street.

Traffic using Canal Street will reduce the congestion and delay at the intersection of Baltimore and Mechanic streets.

Canal Street will be available to the Fire Department both in serving the immediate area and in getting equipment to South Cumberland when needed.

Canal Street will act as a feeder to the Industrial Boulevard leading to South Cumberland, the B&O Railroad shops, the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company plant and Memorial Hospital.

Canal Street will serve the trucking terminals in South Cumberland and aid in keeping trucks off Baltimore Street and other retail shopping areas.

Draw Sections Together

The opening of Canal Street will serve to draw South Cumberland and central Cumberland closer together.

The development of Canal Street will aid the industrial growth of greater Cumberland by providing a better flow of commercial traffic throughout the metropolitan area.

Getty said the Mayor and Council will be told that the South Cumberland Businessmen's Association is not opposed to the Western Maryland Railway Company dismantling its freight house and leasing the land for a parking lot. "We are opposed to the closing of Canal Street, however, due to the reasons listed," Getty said.

On the subject of the Virginia Avenue subway, Getty said the position of the association is that the subway was built 33 years ago and since that time traffic and population and manufacturing in the southern part of Cumberland has increased greatly.

Subway Outdated

The subway is outdated and unable to take care of the present day traffic, Getty said.

Also cited was the traffic hazard which the association claims will exist due to the Industrial Boulevard intersecting with Laing and Virginia Avenue at the subway. The request of the association for a widened and improved subway will be presented to the city officials and also to the B&O Railroad Company, Getty said.

Getty said there are an estimated 7,000 persons living below the subway and in case of heavy rains that entire section of the city would be isolated from the Fire Department and hospitals.

Escapée Gets 10-Year Term For Burglary

Accused of participating in the theft of $37,510 from Friendsville hardware store safe last July, 32-year-old Earl R. Franklin of Johnson City, Tenn., was sentenced yesterday in Garrett County Circuit Court at Oakland to serve 12 years in the Maryland House of Correction.

Associate Judge Neil C. Fraley imposed a 10-year term for burglary. Franklin also drew a two-year sentence on a second count arising from his escape February 1 from the Garrett County jail. The terms are to be served consecutively.

Franklin did not testify on the burglary count but requested that he be given credit for time served in jail since he was arrested last November in Johnson City. Judge Fraley granted the request.

He said he joined in the jail break "on the spur of the moment" but did not help the others saw through bars of the jail. He was recaptured several days later in nearby West Virginia.

Franklin was represented by Dwight Stover, court-appointed attorney, and Stephen R. Pagenhardt, state's attorney, prosecuted the case.

Two other men sentenced to similar terms for their part in the safe cracking at the F. G. Fox and Sons store were brought from the Maryland Penitentiary to testify in the case.

They are Elwood Kissner, 26, Baltimore, a former resident of Friendsville, and Oliver Rockett, 35, Baltimore.

In other recent court action, Judge Fraley pronounced sentences on three men.

Edwin Orton Groves was sentenced to six months in the House of Correction in two cases resulting from traffic violations, the sentences to run concurrently. Groves was given credit for 32 days which he had spent in the jail.

Curtis Friend was fined $250 and costs on an assault charge. Judge fraley suspended sentence of a year in the House of Correction on James Solomon, on a charge of assaulting his son, Mark Solomon.

Clerk Hospitalized

Ormond Ledlow, city clerk for Piedmont, W. Va., suffered a heart attack last night at his home. He is reported in "good" condition at Potomac Valley Hospital in Keyser.

Candidates Asked Views On Teacher Pay Increase

BALTIMORE—(AP)—Political candidates were being asked by the Maryland State Teachers Assn. today to stand on its proposal for an additional $400-a-year teachers pay increase.

A spokesman for the association, which spearheaded a successful fight for a similar increase in the 1955 Legislature, said the question was put to candidates in a mail survey.

"We are doing it as a service to the community," said the spokesman, Publications Director Harry Hendrickson.

"We are just trying to get the opinions of the various people running for office, particularly as to how they feel about public education."

Hendrickson said the questionnaire had been mailed to legislative candidates in the May 20 primary.

A similar teachers pay raise was approved by the 1957 Legislature, was vetoed by Gov. McKeldin, and was enacted over his veto earlier this year by overwhelming majorities. Only one of the governor's 25 fellow Republicans in the House voted to sustain the veto.

In the Senate, those who voted against him included his minority leader, Sen. Phoebe R. Somers.

It is estimated the increase will cost 11-13 million dollars.

Gephart Sets Variety Show

Gephart Parents Teachers Association will present a variety show Thursday and Friday at 7:30 p. m.

EASTER SEAL LUCKYBUCKS NEEDED NOW

Officials hope to realize $12,000 by the end of the campaign.

Crippled and handicapped children of the area are helped by proceeds from the Easter Seal sale.

An estimated 23,000 Seals were mailed. If you have not mailed your "Lucky Buck" for the crippled children, do so today.

Judge See Says Dad's Should Head Families

Judge Ernest A. See delivered the charge to the Mineral County grand jury in Keyser this morning.

Attendants at the court said it was one of the strongest ever delivered by the judge.

Judge See stressed the number of juvenile delinquency cases coming before the jurors, and discussed one case at Piedmont at length.

The judge said too many fathers are not the head of their families. He stated: "There are too many wives and mothers wearing the family pants, and it is about time the fathers are placed back as the head of the family."

R. C. Coffman, a Keyser businessman, was fined $10 by Judge See when he reported late for jury duty.

Blaze Levels District Barn

Spontaneous combustion was blamed late last night for a fire which leveled a barn on the farm of Roy Scheyrock, Town Creek Road, causing about $3,000 damage.

District 16 Volunteer Fire Company was called to the scene at 11:30, but the blaze was out of control by the time ten firemen arrived.

Chief L. J. Shoemaker said a grain drill, hay baler and other farm equipment were lost in the flames, along with approximately 300 bales of hay.

Shoemaker said volunteers had to travel 17 miles to reach the hillside barn. Water was available from two pumps and a nearby creek, but the fire was beyond control, he added.

Midland Man's Death Caused By Hanging

The death of Raymond Schurg, 21, of Midland, last Friday at Rosewood Training School was caused by asphyxia by hanging.

Dr. Russell S. Fisher, state medical examiner, said that was the result of an autopsy performed on the Midland man, who had been an inmate at the school. Schurg's nude body was found on the grounds of the school at Owings Mill, in Baltimore County.

Another business session at 2:45 p. m. will include reports of zone chairmen, committee reports, and international institute pledge offering.

The concluding meeting at 7 p. m. will have installation of officers, a message by Rev. Mr. Snow and a "singaspiration" by Rev. E. E. Grosse, Hanover.

The conf. is district superintendent, and Rev. Neil E. Hightower, Baltimore, is district president.

FROSTBURG — Plans to establish a television translator transmitter unit on Dan's Mountain to pick up and rebroadcast video programs are being made by a group of Frostburg citizens.

A spokesman said these broadcasts will be beamed directly to Frostburg and, according to past performances, give perfect reception.

Far-reaching plans of the group, to be known as "Frostburg Community TV Incorporated," call for the installation of four units atop the mountain to rebroadcast four channels directly to Frostburg. The TV translator picks up signals in areas where home reception is poor, converts them to a new channel and beams a strong clear signal into the populated area. Housed in a small steel cabinet which contains all of the necessary electronic equipment, and operated by remote control, it will receive its signal on the VHF band and rebroadcast it on the UHF band. It meets all of the requirements of the Federal Communications Commission.

The group will operate as a non-profit organization. Authorized solicitors will begin the solicitation of funds today to install the first of the four proposed translators on an experimental basis. Officers are Kenneth L. Close, president; Virgil H. Ruppenthal, executive vice president; Joseph E. James, vice president; Dan Harvey, secretary; William Vogelman, treasurer; Dane Harvey and William Robert Delaney, engineers and Edward J. Ryan, attorney.

POW Incident

PIEDMONT — A Piedmont career soldier, now with the South European Task Force in Italy, had an interesting experience several days ago when his appearance in a Verona, Italy, restaurant started quite a bit of excitement.

Specialist 3-c Guthrie C. Wilkes tells the story something like this:

Domenico Zandona, an Italian waiter, almost dropped his plate of spaghetti when he got a good look at Wilkes.

Instead of serving the GI, the waiter ran back to the kitchen for another waiter who could speak English.

The last time Domenico had seen Wilkes was 14 years ago on a dusty road in Sicily, when Wilkes took him prisoner.

With the other waiter interpreting, Domenico asked: "Do you remember me?"

"No," Wilkes replied. "What's the trouble?"

"You captured me during the battle of Messina in 1944," Domenico went on excitedly.

After a few minutes, Wilkes said, he recalled the incident but still did not recognize the waiter as the Italian soldier he had captured.

"I was crawling through the underbrush when I saw an Italian soldier walking down the road with his carbine slung over his shoulder," Wilkes related.

"I had my Browning automatic rifle and could have shot him in a minute."

Wilkes broke into a grin as he recounted the story. "He looked for all the world like he was out for a peaceful Sunday stroll, just like I used to walk on Sundays back home."

"Instead of shooting him, I slipped out of the bushes and made him a prisoner. He surrendered without any fuss."

The Italian remembered and took pleasure in serving Wilkes his meal. He extended the GI an invitation to visit the place often. Wilkes arrived in Italy about two weeks ago.

Fire Destroys
District Home

KEYSER — Fire destroyed the two-story frame residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Smith at the foot of the west side of Sears Ridge, about two and one half miles from Keyser, Sunday night.

Anyone wishing to help the Smiths may send clothing or furniture to the police station. Chief Guy Clem said his department would see that the family gets all donations.

During the fire State Police Trooper Charles C. Oliver arrested another son of the Smiths, Clifton Estel Smith, about 27, on a charge of forgery. Smith is alleged to have forged his father's name to a check for $38.50 and cashing it at the grocery store of Mrs. S. G. Mayne on West Piedmont Street. He is in jail awaiting a hearing before a justice of the peace.

Majors Expected To Lure 227,400 Fans Today

Cardinals, Cubs Open Race With Night Game

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

The Washington Senators lead the American League, the Dodgers and Giants meet in San Francisco and the world championship pennant flies from an old telephone pole in Milwaukee.

It sounds as though they've gone and made a travesty of the game. But that's the way things were today for the full-treatment opening of the 1958 major league baseball season.

The Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants take the field before a capacity crowd of 23,400 at Seals Stadium for the first major league game ever played in California.

227,400 Fans Expected
A total crowd of about 227,400 was estimated for today's eight games. Commissioner Ford Frick and NL President Warren Giles were sitting in on the ceremonies at San Francisco.

The NL champion Milwaukee Braves opened at home against the Pittsburgh Pirates, with Philadelphia at Cincinnati and the Chicago Cubs at St. Louis for a night game with the Cardinals.

In the American League, the defending champion New York Yankees were at Boston against the Red Sox, who again will be without Ted Williams, just as they were in yesterday's 5-2 defeat in the traditional early opener at Washington.

AL President Will Harridge was at Chicago for the White Sox's opener against the Detroit Tigers. Kansas City was at Cleveland and Washington at Baltimore in the other AL games.

Snider Shifted
While old hands drew the pitching assignments, Don Drysdale (17-9 in '57) for the Dodgers and Ruben Gomez (15-13) for the Giants, there were a few new faces in San Francisco. The Giants had three rookies in the lineup. Jim Davenport (3b), Willie Kirkland (rf) and Orlando Cepeda (1b); the Dodgers one, Dick Gray (3b).

Dodger veteran Duke Snider shifted from center to left in a swap with Gino Cimoli that favored the Duke's slow-healing knee.

Southpaw Warren Spahn, the NL's lone 20-game winner (21-11) last season, started for the Braves in a try for his 22nd major league victory. Right-hander Bob Friend (14-18) was the Pirates' choice. Ted Kluszewski, late of Cincinnati, was Pittsburgh's first baseman, while rookie Harry Hanebrink replaced the injured Wes Covington in the outfield for the Braves, who were forced to use the telephone pole when their custom-made pennant pole was late in arriving.

Pinson Opens In Right
Vada Pinson, the most promising rookie in the Florida camps, opened in right for Cincinnati against the Phils and veteran right-hander Robin Roberts (10-22). The Redlegs picked right-hander Brooks Lawrence against a Philie lineup that had ex-Red Wally Post in right field. Second baseman Gran Hamner shifted to third for the Phils, replacing veteran Willie Jones, whose 3-year-old son died yesterday.

The Yankees, with shortstop Tony Kubek and utilityman Harry Simpson on the injured list, decided on right-hander Don Larsen (10-4) at Boston against Willard Nixon (12-13). Gene Stephens again played left for the Red Sox as Williams fought off the effects of food poisoning.

GIANTS GIVEN ROYAL WELCOME — San Francisco Giant outfielders Willie Mays (left) and Hank Sauer are pursued by cameramen and viewed by spectators along parade route during big civic welcome for team yesterday in San Francisco. The Giants, moved from

New York. Los Angeles Dodgers, moved from Brooklyn, will make West Coast history today when they meet in a National League opener at Seals Stadium in Frisco. It will be the first major league game ever played in California. (AP Photofax)

Ramos Shows Mastery Over Boston Rival

By International News Service

Pedro Ramos, the fast-balling Washington right-hander, has made a career out of beating the Boston Red Sox.

The 22-year-old hurler, just starting his fourth year with the Senators, has registered 12 of his 30 big league victories against the Red Sox, while only five of his 37 defeats have been at the hands of the Beantowners.

With the exception of Kansas City, Boston is the sole team in the league over which Ramos holds a won-and-lost margin and he is only 7-and-5 with the A's.

The six-foot, 175-pound pitcher from Pinar Del Rio, Cuba, gave indication yesterday that this will be another season of mastery over the Red Sox.

He hurled Washington to a 5-10-2 victory over Boston in the 1958 curtain-raiser played at Griffith Stadium before a distinguished audience headed by President Eisenhower.

Ramos gave up just five hits in beating the Sox for a 12th time. He also singled in the tie-breaking run and scored himself.

After spending two years in the minors, Ramos reached the majors in 1955 and had a 5-and-11 record but was 2-and-1 against Boston. In 1956 he was 12 and 10 and 6-and-1 against the Red Sox. Last year, it was 12-and-16 and he drew with Boston at 3-and-3.

Crowd Of 200,000 Gives Giants Rousing Reception

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP) — Major league baseball reaches from coast to coast for the first time today with the San Francisco Giants and Los Angeles Dodgers meeting in the Pacific inaugural.

Transplanted from New York and Brooklyn, the Giants and Dodgers renew their long rivalry along a different coastline.

Manager Bill Rigney named Puerto Rican right hander Ruben Gomez (15-10 in 1957) to start against the Dodgers who nominated Don Drysdale (17-9).

A crowd estimated at 200,000 lined the streets yesterday to welcome Willie Mays and Co., and later a packed banquet audience heard Rigney say, "They pick us to finish sixth but we haven't that in mind. This team is ready to go."

Los Angeles Manager Walt Alton and the city's mayor, Norris Poulson, received ovations, the happy thought that major league ball finally had arrived.

A capacity throng of 23,400, or perhaps a few more, has been assured since last Dec. 1 when the opening game became a sellout. The clamor for tickets continued and Peter Hoffman, the man in charge of the duets, estimates 60,000 or more will watch the opening series, which ends here Thursday. The two clubs switch immediately to Los Angeles for games Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

In the future for both clubs are new stadiums and pay television. The video eye won't focus this year and those who don't go to the parks will listen via radio. A new 10 million dollar layout here is scheduled for next year. In Los Angeles the voters make known their desires stadium-wise this summer. For now, the Dodgers play in the Coliseum with its 100,000-plus seats.

There have been reports the pay TV prospect calls for a $37,500,000 deal with the Giants over a 15-year period.

Texas League To Open 63rd Race-Friday

DALLAS — The Texas League, whose future was quite clouded last winter but which emerged with two new cities and a new operator at Dallas as one of the solidest of the minors, opens its 63rd race next Friday.

President Dick Butler viewed the 154-game campaign with optimism. He said if the weather was favorable and there's a good, close race, the season should again produce one million plus in attendance.

Last season rain and cold caused more postponements and hampered attendance greater than any race in history for the first month. The league is opening its campaign the latest yet. Last year the season started nine days earlier.

Shreveport and Oklahoma City are no more. The former sold its franchise to Victoria after 17 straight seasons in the league. Oklahoma City transferred its franchise to Corpus Christi and will be without Texas League baseball for the first time in 22 years.

The crux of the trouble came when the Burnett interests turned in the Dallas franchise and said they would operate no further here unless they could get into a league of higher classification. It appeared for a time that Dallas might not have a club in the league. But finally J. W. Bateson, wealthy Dallas contractor, stepped in to take over the franchise and lease the baseball plant owned by the Burnett interests.

Houston and Fort Worth, which will get its material from the Chicago Cubs, will probably be co-favorites when the race starts.

Tulsa will be at Fort Worth, Dallas at Austin, Victoria at Houston and San Antonio at Corpus Christi to open the season Friday night.

Von Braun Not Fastest Pitcher, But 'Smartest'

ATLANTA — (INS) — Dr. Werner Von Braun, America's crack missile expert, was on the mound for the Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Association baseball team.

The German scientist, complete with Cracker baseball cap, touched off the club's 1958 home opener with two quick pitches yesterday — then departed for Washington.

"He's not the fastest pitcher I've seen," noted one spectator. "No, but I'll bet he's the smartest," came the perfect reply.

Mobile at New Orleans, postponed, rain.
Chattanooga at Birmingham 1.
Nashville at Atlanta 1 (11 innings).

Allegany To Make Track Debut In Frostburg Meet

Beall High School will take part in its second track and field meet of the year Thursday, being host to Romney and Allegany in a triangular affair. Starting time for field events at Frostburg is 3:30 p. m., with track numbers scheduled for 4:15.

Jerry Calhoun, Beall coach, said track events will be 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard run, 880-yard run, mile run, 440 relay, 880 relay and mile relay. Comprising the field events will be shotput, discus, high jump and broad jump.

Beall finished second in a triangular meet last week which also had Keyser and Ridgeley as participants. Thursday's meet will be the first of the season for Romney and Allegany.

Standouts for the Mountaineers in the opener were Dick Plummer, first in the 220 and second in the 100; Wayne McFarland, first in the broad jump, and Bob Beeman, winner of the mile run.

New Little Loop May Be Formed

Efforts will be made to form another area Little League at a meeting tomorrow night, 7:30, at the Midland Fire Hall.

Three towns — Corriganville, Barton and Midland — were represented at a meeting Sunday at Midland. Any other towns wishing to have Little League ball are asked to send representatives to tomorrow's session.

Formation of a new league is necessary because the Pen-Mar League has all of its franchises taken, a spokesman for the group said.

Bibb Falk, former American League outfielder, has been coaching the University of Texas baseball team since 1940. The Longhorns have won 10 Southwest Conference titles under him.

Celtics Greatest, Auerbach Claims

BOSTON — Boston Coach Red Auerbach thinks his Celtics this year were the greatest team in history despite loss of their National Basketball Assn. championship to the St. Louis Hawks.

"This was the greatest club by far I've ever seen—and I've been around 20 years," Auerbach said at the Celtics' annual breakfast dinner last night. "It makes me feel very humble."

Auerbach said early in the season he thought that with a team such as the Celtics "I wouldn't have to worry about my job for a long time."

"I was so wrong," Red added. "It was all due to injuries. No one can say whether we would have won again, but I would have appreciated having the team in its entirety."

42 Qualifying Sections Set For '58 PGA

NEW YORK (AP)—The growing national public links golf championship will require 42 qualifying sections—five more than last year, the U. S. Golf Assn. said Saturday.

The 36-hole sectional qualifying rounds will be played on various dates from June 14 through June 21. These will qualify 148 players for the championship proper at the North Course of the Silver Lake Golf Club, Orland Park, Ill., July 7-12. Last year's champion and runner-up are exempt.

To Play In Washington
Sectional qualifying sites were added at Washington, D. C.; Fargo, N. D.; Albuquerque, N. M.; Austin and Big Spring, Tex., and Kansas City, Mo. The one at Baltimore was dropped.

The tournament attracted 1,923 entries last year, when it was played at Hershey, Pa. An even greater number is expected this year with the tournament at a central location.

The two exempt players, if still eligible, and the sectional qualifiers will play a 36-hole qualifying competition at the tournament site July 7-8. This will determine the team championship for the Warren C. Harding Cup and the 64 qualifiers for match play, starting July 9. Entries close May 29.

Don Essig III of Indianapolis, last year's winner, is a student at Louisiana State University. Runner-up Gene Towsy of Dallas is a part-time electronics student at Southern Methodist. Both are eligible this year unless they have joined private clubs.

Amateurs Only
Entries are open only to male amateur golfers who have been bona fide public course players since Jan. 1 and who have not held privileges of any private club maintaining its own course or of any course to which the general public is not admitted.

Public links players are permitted to hold incidental private course privileges if they are provided by an educational institution, a federal armed service or an industry. They also are permitted to accept expense payments for the tournament if administered by a U.S.G.A. representative in their districts.

Dates and sites of the sectional qualifying rounds:

June 14—Spokane, Wash.
June 15—Honolulu, San Francisco, Tenn., Ill., Indianapolis, Ind.; Wichita, Kan.; Louisville, Ky.; New Orleans, La.; Dayton, Ohio; Oklahoma City, Okla.; Milwaukee, Wis.
June 16—Detroit, St. Paul, Minn.; Buffalo, N.Y.; Portland, Ore.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Memphis, Tenn.; Big Spring, Tex.; June 17—Washington, D.C.; Atlanta, Ga.; Fargo, N.D.

June 20—Denver, Jacksonville, Fla.; Miami Springs, Fla.; High Point, N.C.; Dallas, Texas
June 21—Phoenix, Ariz.; Long Beach, Calif.; Toledo, Ohio; Chattanooga, Tenn.; Austin, Tex.

Grads Beaten By Fort Hill

A two-run rally in the bottom of the fifth broke a 1-1 deadlock and enabled Fort Hill High's Sentinels to launch their baseball season with a 3-1 conquest of an Alumni club yesterday.

Roger Manges went the route for Bobby Cavanaugh's defending city and County League champions, scattering seven hits. Jesse Markley, bellwether of the Sentinel mound staff for the past three seasons, hurled the first three frames for the Grads but Ketterman, his relief, was charged with the defeat.

The Sentinels' winning rally started when Jimmy Stinson cracked a single and rode home on Gary Wolford's hit following a walk to Tommy Shaw. Eddie Weaver's single loaded the bases and Shaw scored the game's final run on another safety by Donnie Lewis.

Galen McGregor accounted for three of the Alumni's seven safeties. Gary Wolford and Eddie Weaver shared four of Fort Hill's six bingles.

Mountaineers, Generals Split

By The Associated Press

West Virginia broke even in Southern Conference competition against Washington and Lee in three sports yesterday.

Paul Chuma pitched five innings and Jim Carter the last two frames in the Mountaineers' second game baseball victory over W. & L. 1-0. The two hurlers allowed four hits between them after the Generals beat WVU, 4-2, in the opener of a twin-bill at Lexington, Va.

Association Opens Season Under Lights

By International News Service

The 1958 American Association baseball season opens today and league officials hope to attract two million paying fans during the year.

The Minneapolis Millers, practically the same team that won the 1957 Pacific Coast League flag for San Francisco, are slight favorites to win the Association pennant. Wichita was a close second in pre-season polling of baseball writers, followed by Denver, Omaha and St. Paul.

League president Eddie Doherty counts on the strengthening of Charleston, Indianapolis and Louisville to boost this season's attendance over the 1,506,161 figure of 1957.

The schedule for tonight's games has Minneapolis at Louisville, Omaha at Wichita, Denver at Indianapolis and St. Paul at Charleston.

Tennis Official Wants Tourneys Opened To All

NEW YORK (AP)—A high U. S. tennis official today called the amateur tennis picture "a horrible mess" and suggested all professional barriers be dropped if the present hypocrisy is continued.

"It's the gosh-darnedest situation I have ever seen," added Rennie McMahon, member of the executive board and former president of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Assn. "I haven't the answer, I am confused, but the approach to the problem is the wackiest thing I ever heard of."

"Rather than continue this hypocritical vein I would prefer to see the designations 'pro' and 'amateur' dropped. All players would be simply tennis players."

"The big tournaments would be open to everybody. And the pros, Pancho Gonzales, Lew Hoad and Tony Trabert — they could play and compete for the Davis Cup. I don't favor this, you understand. I say this is better than letting tennis continue on its present plane or adopting a caste system as some European countries propose."

Canadiens, Bruins To Resume Tonight

BOSTON — (INS) — The injury jinx today continued to dog Montreal's powerful Canadiens who will take to the Boston Garden ice tonight against the Boston Bruins in the fourth game of the Stanley Cup finals.

Floyd Curry, Montreal's ace penalty killer, was sidelined with a foot infection. His absence would be felt if the going gets rough — and the chances are it will because the Bruins are on a tough spot.

The Bostonians are down one game to two in the best-of-seven series and a defeat tonight will just about wind things up.

Clubs Run Out Of 'Spares' When It Comes To Catchers

By JIMMY BRESLIN

—NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK (NEA)—An extra infielder can replace a regular without too much harm to a club. Even when a fellow like Red Schoendienst gets hurt, the way he did in the World Series, the Braves have Felix Mantilla.

It's that way with every outfit.

An extra outfielder covers up if Braves have to be a different somebody is out and the harm never really seems to assert itself. A top pitcher misses a turn or two. There always seems to be somebody who takes up part of the slack.

But let your catcher get hurt, and the guy walks off the field, muttering about what is wrong with him, a club seems to show it all over.

This season, Yogi Berra of the Yankees has a jammed up throw in hand. Red Crandall of the Braves has bone chips in his left elbow and he can't swing correctly. Heywood Sullivan, the Red Sox hope, is out for the season with a slipped disk in his back. Roy Campanella of the Dodgers may never walk again after his automobile accident.

Injuries Hurt

The Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Cardinals, generally figured to be running second to the Yankees and Braves, respectively, get their only chance to take it all because of these injuries.

Last year, the White Sox sneak (thief approach to an attack because nothing more than petty larceny when Sherm Lollar, All-Lopez's big guy behind the plate, hurt his ankle and was out for a long time.

"Now Lopez hopes he gets mileage out of Berra's injury," a baseball guy points out. "Berra looked terrible last year, but you still want him ahead of Elston Howard."

"It's the little things with a catcher. Take Berra away and sooner or later the Yankee pitchers don't do so good. Howard doesn't do so good. Howard makes a mistake or two and the situation is magnified."

It is the same with Crandall. There were Milwaukee pitchers who didn't want to throw to their captain-catcher. But when Fred Haney straightened things out, they came around requesting that Crandall catch.

If Crandall has trouble and the Braves have to go with somebody else for good periods of time, Fred Hutchinson will have a talking point with his Cardinals. The

New manager Bobby Bragan had Minnie Minoso, Larry Doby, Fred Hatfield, Mickey Vernon (all acquired by new general manager Frank Lane) and rookie second baseman Billy Moran in the lineup.

Terps Divide, Play Another Double Today

By The Associated Press

Clemson's Tigers and Duke's Blue Devils get a chance to boost their 4-0 league records today as they head past the one-third season mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference baseball race.

The Blue Devils go to North Carolina's Tar Heels (1-1) in a single contest, while the Tigers travel to Maryland (1-3) for a double header and South Carolina (1-4) plays another twin bill at Virginia.

Duke, the ACC defending champion, and Clemson kept up the neck-and-neck pace yesterday with solid victories. North Carolina State's Wolfpack, also ranking high on a 3-0 record, was idle and plays next against Clemson tomorrow.

The Blue Devils got off to a fast four-run start against Wake Forest and added five runs later to beat the Deacons 9-4.

Clemson dealt out Virginia's fourth straight ACC loss with a 10-4 victory on eight hits off three Virginia pitchers.

Meanwhile, South Carolina's Gamecocks took the first game of a twin bill 9-8 against Maryland's Terps. The Gamecocks scored all six runs in the fourth inning with two out, three of them coming on catcher J. C. Lawmire's right-field homer.

The Terps won the five-inning second game 6-5. South Carolina Coach Joe Grugan lodged a protest when a fifth-inning announcement said that frame would be the last, owing to dining hall closing hours. The score was 5-3 at the time, and Maryland pushed across the winning run on a bunt, a balk and a single.

Woodward Wins Split Decision

NEW YORK (INS) — Middleweight Eddie Andrews of Lowell, Mass., won his first fight at St. Nicholas Arena with one punch but last night he lost his second bout by one point.

Andrews, who knocked out Tex Gonzalez in 1:41 of the first round three weeks ago at St. Nick's, lost a split decision by one point to New York's Otis Woodward last night.

Referee Teddy Martin scored the fight 5-4 for Andrews and judge Joe Eppy recorded the same margin for Woodward. Judge Artie Aidala had it even in rounds, 5-5, but made Woodward the winner, six points to five.

There were no knockdowns in the nationally-televised (DuMont) 10-rounder for which Woodward weighed 159½ pounds to 156 for Andrews.

Middleweight champ Ray Robinson served as a second for Woodward and former champ Rocky Graziano filled the same capacity for Andrews.

'Mr. Fitz' Looks Forward To Fifth Preakness Win

BALTIMORE — (Special to The Times) — Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, who has found that the training of Preakness winners is habit-forming, says don't count him out for a fifth victory in the $100,000 classic to be run at Pimlico on Saturday, May 17.

The 83-year old dean of American sports personalities points to Misty Flight, which he trains for Wheatley Stable, as his possible starter in the 1 3/16th-mile Preakness.

"My stop watch says he can run, but the trouble is it doesn't tell me if he will run," explains Mr. Fitz. "He's a moody kind of colt, but capable of beating any of this year's 3-year olds if he decides to try. If Misty Flight comes up to the Preakness good and any of the other top colts make a mistake — look out."

Misty Flight, who climaxed his 2-year old season last autumn by winning the Remsen Stakes in New York, trained well in Florida this winter, but simply refused to extend himself in his races. Mr. Fitz is working patiently to improve the colt's temperament before the Preakness and other spring sophomore classics.

Defending Champ
Sunny Jim, who was born in the spring following the first running of the Preakness in 1873, is defending champion in the event. He won with Bold Ruler in a surprise victory last spring. Bold Ruler's younger brother, Nasco, has been nominated to the 82nd Preakness along with Misty Flight, but thus far he has not shown any running resemblance to the 1957 "Horse of the Year."

Earlier Preakness winners for Mr. Fitz was Nashua, the world's

COMING IN ON 'ONE WING'—Ed McCormick, Sherman High School track star, didn't let a shoulder separation bother him as he sped to victory in both the 100 and 220-yard dashes in a district meet at Denton, Texas. Robinson Sets Purse Terms For Third Basilio Meeting

NEW YORK—(AP)—If Carmen Basilio wants a third title fight with Sugar Ray Robinson, he'll have to take the short end of the purse again.

Robinson, reigning over the middleweight division for the fifth time, made that plain shortly after he had masterminded sparring partner Otis Woodard to an upset 10-round decision over Eddie Andrews, a 3-1 choice, at St. Nicholas Arena last night.

Robinson, who handled Andrews, of Lowell, Mass.

Only 10 days ago Basilio had said he would have to split equally with Robinson if they fought again.

On the question of whether he intended to fight again, Robinson said, "When you got something somebody wants, you're in business. My business is boxing."

On Basilio's demand for an even share—if he decides to fight again—Sugar Ray smiled and said: "Doesn't Basilio know the law says the champion has to get more. I know Carmen doesn't want to break the law."

Robinson collected 45 per cent and Basilio 20 per cent when Carmen won the first fight Sept. 23, 1957. They each received 30 per cent for the return, when Basilio had his left eye shut, in Chicago last March 25. The International Boxing Club disclosed last month that Robinson had given it an option for his next fight. In return Ray was to collect 42½ per cent.

No Novice At It

BALTIMORE — Candace and Piano Jim, nominees for the $100,000 Preakness at Pimlico on May 17 are owned by Walter M. Jeffords, of Glen Riddle, Pa., who started his first horse in the Preakness in 1919. He has had 12 other starters since.

Grove's Wins Coney League Rolloff Title

The bowling team representing Lefty's Grove's alleys won the playoff championship of the Longcoring City League by winning four of six games from Eichhorn's pennant winners.

The Grove duxmen lost their two games on their own alleys, but took all three on the Stakem lanes. Lefty's rollers, however, finished first in total pins at both places—2138 to 2123 on the Grove pinways and 2376 to 2090 at Stakem's.

Big Bill Murphy led the Grove assault with a 197 game and 1030 series, but Peden Warnick of Eichhorn's was the star of the rolloff with 212 and 1069.

Grove's receives a trophy for the victory, while Eichhorn's gets $25 for taking the regular-season title and $20 more for being runner-up in the rolloffs.

Individual awards go to Warnick ($15) for season high average, 163; John Brode ($10), top set, 627; and Bill Truly ($9), high game, 258. Cash prizes of $5 also go to Brode and Warnick for going over the 600 mark in sets, the latter having a 623.

In a rolloff between the two bottom teams, Liberty Trust won four of six from Republican Club. Jack Blair led the winners with 189-967 and Ted Foote had 173-923 for GOP.

Members of the league will attend a National League baseball game: July 27 in Pittsburgh. The rolloff results:

At Grove's
Groves	817 655 666—2138
Eichhorn's	725 671 727—2123
At Stakem's
Groves	872 705 799—2376

Gracie Fields 'Saves' Play

By JACK O'BRIAN
NEW YORK — (INS) — Gracie Fields, on "Mrs. Arris Goes To Paris" on Studio One last night had a creaky vehicle but steered it superbly, with depth and warm style and a sincerity and unusual among French TV stages.

Miss Fields played a terribly decrepit chestnut of an aging Cinderella a charwoman who wants to sink her total savings — 300 English pounds — in a ball gown. This sort of plotboiler called its clichés from the start. And they fell in mechanically, as expected, everyone noble and syrupy and blobs of endearment engulfing all except Gracie Fields. Her absolute, total warmth of personality and old-pro technical equipment gave "Mrs. Arris" a touch of true distinction.

Jacques Bergerac played a French couturier in such full

Parisian fashion that his dialogue needed English titles. . . . Don DeFore, Ozzie Nelson's erstwhile next-door-heckler, is in New York to audition for the road company of "Music Man". "Auntie Mame" will be a long time getting to TV but it will make a hot TV series and vague plans are set already. . . . The Burns & Allen show had Harry Von Zell's voice describing a different commercial scene than the one shown. . . .

Senor Wences on the Jack Paar show was a marvelously effective and impressive old-pro, graceful and amusing and always with a blithe flair even with the tiniest tricks and manipulations. . . . The puppet he made from an orange, a bottle and a napkin should keep little kids quietly fascinated and maybe the senior should sell a how-to-type kit. . . .

Nice little Eddie Hodges, of "Music Man" and $32,000 fame, signed for the May 31 Come show. . . .

The Jack Paar show now officially is making a neat profit for the first time since back beyond the Steve Allen days — and costs NBC $4,000 less than Allen's Carmine ink. . . .

The big hour-long "Lucy" spec had too few laughs even for a 30-minute show. . . .

When Bill Cullen announced 100 dozen eggs as a prize on "The Price Is Right" and several fell from the basket — they bounced! Today's best bet: The Emmy awards tonight. . . .

Attorney Sues For Fee

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Atty. Alexander Cooper, who defended Vincent Scatena in a murder trial, filed suit for $11,300 against Scatena yesterday.

Cooper said the sum represented his fee, plus interest and commission. Scatena was convicted of first degree murder in the slaying of 84-year-old Mrs. Elizabeth Enfinger. The jury fixed the penalty at life imprisonment.

Mrs. Grace Hartman, 1080 Avenue, Extended, yesterday afternoon was sentenced to 30 days in the Allegany County Jail on a charge of neglect and contributing to the delinquency of her minor children.

Magistrate Fred H. Anderson said he would make an effort to place the children back in the mother's care at the end of that time, but that she would have to straighten out her home life and take better care of them.
A 14-year-old Frostburg boy who was found a delinquent minor after being involved in the theft of $8 from another boy was placed on probation yesterday for six months by Magistrate Anderson, who also ordered the lad to undergo an examination at the mental hygiene clinic here.

Dear Abby
By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I would like to "speak" to "THE WIFE WHO KNOWS" who suggests you send the Vice Squad to the offices to clean up the dirt. I will make a deal with her. If SHE doesn't send the Vice Squad to the office, I won't send them to the home. I needn't cite Kinsey statistics on the shennigans that take place on the home front. Ask any mailman, milkman or TV repair man who carries his services into the home. And to the executive, whose wife is suspicious of what goes on between him and his secretary I say, "Be patient with her. She must be sick." A SECRETARY WHO REALLY KNOWS

DEAR ABBY: My husband is the quiet type but last night he blew his top. He has been eating my rhubarb pie for 20 years and never said a word. It happens to be my favorite. All of a sudden he started to yell all over the place that he never cared for rhubarb pie and why did I make them all the time? He hurt my feelings and I cried all night. Do you think I was in the wrong or was he?

RHUBARB PIE MAKER
DEAR R. P. M.: If a man doesn't like something, he should mention it early in the marriage. A wife is no mind reader. Let him eat cake!

DEAR ABBY: Our son is getting married and between her side and our side there will be 230 guests. The bride and groom wanted to put "No Children" on the invitations but we didn't think it would look right. Anyway, both sides made it plain we didn't want children because if we had them it would mean about 60 more. It's got back to us that if the children can't come the parents won't come either. It seems to me if the parents were invited for a night out they'd pay for a baby sitter and go. Why can't they do it for our wedding?

GROOM'S MOTHER
DEAR MOM: Those who want to attend the wedding will hire a sitter. Don't worry about the others.

DEAR ABBY: For my birthday, my boyfriend gave me a hope chest. His aunt told me she never heard of a boy giving a girl a hope chest and if anybody gave it to a girl it should be her parents. Then she said, "Besides, nobody has hope chests anymore—they are old fashioned." Is she right or isn't she?

DEAR KITTY: I have heard from hundreds of girls who have received hope chests from their boyfriends as gifts, and I certainly will not call it "old fashioned."
CONFIDENTIAL TO M. M.: The only place in the world where success comes before work is in the dictionary.

Pro-Western Italian Party Has Worries
By JOHN J. CASSERLI

ROME—(INS)—A top Italian government source disclosed today that Christian Democratic Party leaders are now "very worried" over the outcome of May's national elections.
It was the first time during the current campaign that a high-ranking official expressed definite concern over the future of the pro-Western party of Secretary Amintore Fanfani. He declared:
"There is no doubt but that the Demo-Christians are now very worried. I say 'now' because two months ago the party seemed overconfident. However, the alarm clock rang for them at the Fiat elections."

The Communist union came back strong in shop steward elections at Turin's big Fiat auto and aircraft plants last April 2. The Reds, who suffered heavy losses in the same elections one year ago, were the biggest gainer at Fiat. The source declared:
"This victory for the Communists was extremely significant because it marked, for the first time since the Hungarian rebellion and de-Stalinization, that the Communists were able to score any type of success in a factory election. They scored as well as a minor factory-election victory only a few weeks earlier."

The Demo-Christian setbacks were blamed on overconfidence and lack of local leadership. However, the source emphasized a much more acute reason:
"The Demo-Christians are simply not working hard enough. Secretary Fanfani certainly is. However, a good number of the lesser lights have not caught fire. Now, they know that they will have to start working."

The source, who asked not to be identified because of possible embarrassment with his colleagues, said it seemed almost certain—at the present time—that the Demo-Christians will not win an absolute majority in Parliament in the elections May 25-26. He added:
"There may well be some surprises if the Demo-Christians don't do as well as expected. One is that Fanfani may be willing to step in as premier since he would be at the head of an unstable government, depending on center support."
"In that case, it can now be reported that Premier Zoli probably will be asked to stay on as premier. And further, if Zoli has trouble forming what could be considered a stable government, President Gronchi will dissolve Parliament again and call for new national elections."

The source explained that, under Italian law, the latter is possible and could cause the greatest political crisis in Italy since the formation of the republic in 1946.

Frank Diamond, 35 Years As Restaurateur, Retires
One of Cumberland's oldest and best-known restaurant owners, retired last week.
Frank J. Diamond Sr. closed the doors of his Windsor Restaurant on Baltimore Street after 26 years at its present location.
Diamond had been in the restaurant business in Cumberland for over 35 years, and at one time he and his brother, Richard Diamond, operated both the Windsor and another eating establishment at the corner of Baltimore and North Mechanic Streets.
In 1932, Diamond assumed the full ownership of the restaurant now located in the Windsor Hotel Building.
Diamond was born at Dardanelles, Turkey, but moved to Athens, Greece, with his family when he was a young boy. He came to this country in 1907 and worked several years in a restaurant in Wheeling, W. Va.
He came to Cumberland in 1916 and worked several months before returning to Wheeling. The next year he went to Norfolk, Va., where he was employed as a cook for the government. During World War I he served in the Army, and was discharged at Camp Lee, Va. in 1918.
He returned to Cumberland after his discharge and went into partnership with George Mallis, who owned the Maryland Restaurant, now the Windsor Restaurant. Fourteen years later Diamond became full owner.
Diamond is a member of St. Peter and Paul Catholic Church; Fort Cumberland Post 13, American Legion; Cumberland Aerie 245, Eagles; vice president of the Order of Ahepa, and is serving as vice president of the St. George Society in Wheeling.
He is married to the former Miss Veronica Wojcik, and the couple will observe their 22nd wedding anniversary June 16. They have two children, Katherine, a junior at Duquesne University, and Frank Jr., a freshman at Frostburg State Teachers College.
Diamond and his wife, who was active in the business with her husband, said they plan to "take things easy" at their new home at 1300 Frederick Street.

Two Coal Mines Recall Nearly 400 For Work
PITTSBURGH (AP)—Nearly 400 miners have been recalled by Crucible Steel Co. to resume operations next Monday at two company coal mines in Pennsylvania and West Virginia.
The company said 300 miners have been called back to work at the Crucible Mine in Greene County and 100 have been recalled to work at the Hughston Mine near Charleston, W. Va.
The two operations were closed early in March.
Meanwhile, Pittsburgh Coal Co., notified 190 miners that its Monitor No. 10 mine will be closed indefinitely because of a lack of orders.

CD Council Meet Slated
PARKERSBURG (AP)—Lewis E. Berry, deputy administrator of the federal Civil Defense Administration, will be the principal speaker Friday at a dinner climaxing a one-day conference of directors of the CD Council for Region 2.
Some 200 city and county civil defense directors from the four-state area comprising the western portion of the CD council are expected to attend.
Berry served as deputy general counsel for the Department of the Army prior to joining the Civil Defense agency. He is a lawyer and served as vice president of the Michigan Municipal League before entering the government.
Delegates to the meeting here will come from Kentucky, Ohio and Virginia as well as West Virginia.

Wicomico County Officials Discuss Spending Plans
SALISBURY (AP)—The Wicomico County Commissioners will tackle budget problems at today's budget session, with the aim of getting the spending program in shape by May 1.
That's the date the budget for the next fiscal year and the tax rate have to be set.
A large share of the county's expenses are wrapped up in the school program of more than 3 million dollars, about half of which is supplied by the State and federal governments.
Most budget requests are up over the previous year's but the health department is a notable exception. It is asking for $51,000, a drop of $13,000 because much of its funds come from the federal government under an accelerating formula.
The roads board, which had $140,000 to spend last year, has not yet submitted its estimated needs for next year.

LaVale Firemen Answer Alarms
The LaVale Volunteer Firemen yesterday answered three alarms. Firemen went to the Grabenstein property on Dan's Mountain, where they extinguished a small woodland fire in the vicinity of the Six-Mile House. Firemen were out about an hour and reported very little damage.
A call was later answered on Braddock's Road near the Elda Inn where firemen battled a small blaze for nearly two hours. Foresters were called to cut down some trees which were damaged by the fire.
Again LaVale went out along Wills Creek off Route 36 where a small brush fire was put out with no damage in about 30 minutes.

Constitution Change Commission To Meet
CHARLESTON (AP)—The Commission on Constitutional Revision will hold its only general hearing May 13-14 here. The public has been invited to present individual views about changing West Virginia's 86-year-old constitution.

Medical Care Plan Study Makes Start

BALTIMORE — The State Health Department has begun studies to determine how additional funds for its medical care program for indigent persons will be spent.

Dr. V. L. Ellicott, chief of the bureau of medical services and hospitals, said yesterday the 1958 General Assembly reduced by $138,000 the department's budget request for the program.

As a result Baltimore City and the 23 counties were left with about 2 million dollars, he said.

"What we must determine is where to spend the additional $300,000 the Legislature left in the program," Ellicott said.

The budget reduction, of course, made it necessary to make changes in the program that had been planned.

This phase of the State's medical care program provides for the services of physicians and dentists to the indigent or medically indigent, as well as the cost of drugs.

Under an agreement recently reached between the State welfare and health departments, some of the funds will be matched with federal aid. The contract is being studied by federal welfare officials in Washington.

How much more income will you report next year?

If you're a normal healthy specimen you're going to hope it will be more than the one you have just reported to Uncle Sam.

Try this test to see how good you might be at making the total a little larger. Ask yourself:

Am I content to go through life with my job as my only income? Wouldn't that be pretty unwise when you might get extra income from dividends on common stock or interest on bonds? Many people like you. This kind of income can keep coming after you've left your job . . . perhaps for life.

Do I know what good common stocks can bring me besides income? Common stock makes you part-owner of a company. If the company prospers your stock may pay more dividends and may go up in value. This could help your income keep pace with any rise in prices.

Do I have to be well-healed to buy stocks? No indeed. More than 8 1/2 million people own stock. Two out of three have incomes under $7500 a year. Many are buying stock in some of America's greatest companies for as little as $40 every three months, up to $1,000 a month, on the Monthly Investment Plan.

Is it all as easy as that? No. Be sure to keep your wits about you. For a company may not pay a dividend, may lose ground in our free economy. Stock prices go up and down, like the price of any kind of property.

Then do I have to be an expert to invest successfully? Not at all. Few of the people who are getting income from dividends on common stock could call themselves experts. The important things to do are: Use only extra money left over after living expenses are paid and emergencies provided for. Get the facts before you invest—never depend on tips or rumors. And see a broker for sensible advice. Make sure he's with a Member Firm of the New York Stock Exchange.

Where do I start? With a booklet called "INVESTMENT FACTS." It's free and it's just been brought up-to-date. It gives interesting facts about investing as well as the records of more than 300 stocks on the New York Stock Exchange that have paid dividends every three months from 20 to 34 years. There's also a description of the Monthly Investment Plan. Drop in at a Member Firm for a friendly welcome and a free copy. A broker there will help you buy and sell. Ask him about bonds as well as stocks. And from time to time ask him to look over your securities with you. Or send the coupon now for a copy by return mail. Then maybe in April to come you'll be a happier man.

Deep-fry on a  GAS Burner-with-a-Brain

Make the dough, place 3 or 4 inches of fat in a saucepan on a GAS Burner-with-a-Brain. Dial 375 degrees—get perfect results!

Serve 'em fluffy-'n-light every time

There's only one secret to making delicious doughnuts. Have the temperature of the fat just right! Too hot fat forms a crust before doughnuts are cooked through. Too cool fat means doughnuts will soak up fat.

But the GAS Burner-with-a-Brain adjusts its own flame—automatically—to keep the fat at exactly the right temperature. You just can't miss! You don't even need a deep fat fryer.

Other Features of 1958 Automatic GAS Ranges

Before you buy any range, see why smart, young moderns are cooking with GAS. Automatic Clock Control turns the oven on, cooks entire meals, turns the oven off—without your being anywhere around. Instant Heat and Instant Shut-Off...no waiting, no warm-up, no carry over heat.
